Last summer, music theatre GOED WERK performed the performance 'Koekenbakkers' in Gouda. Especially for Gouda by Candlelight they have made a Christmas version of it. This short, continuous musical performance takes place in a fictitious biscuit factory. The biscuit bakers are used to baking stroopwafels, but now they have to switch to Christmas wreaths. They don't find that easy. But everything is always artisanal!

19.30 – 22.00

GordijnOpzij plays. "How it came about that the penguins celebrated Christmas in Gouda". Marleen van Os and Ben Bijker have made a beautiful story about how one night the penguins get into trouble because of the icy cold. A heartwarming story that ends under the big Christmas tree in Gouda.

O Peperstraat 57

19.30 – 22.00

The Gouda bands PANSHIR & Tribute alternate. When you hear the splitting riffs of PANSHIR, you quickly think of bands like Muse, The Tea Party and Arctic Monkeys. What makes this band slightly different? The light Middle Eastern and Persian influences that shine through between the lyrics and melodies. The band themselves describe their sound as a variation from a fist on your chin to a pat on your back. So don't just expect candlelight, expect flames as well. Tribute is a very experienced rock band that plays a mix of covers and original songs on guitar, bass and percussion. They play from small garden parties to large barns and everything in between. They bring Ben Howard as smoothly as The Killers. Even acoustic. Tribute will rock your socks off! The highlight you can't miss is the hilarious Christmas song.
